CRS: Voices Of Moderation

If anyone has a read on what the most engaging session will be at CRS 2012, it would have to be the five industry heavyweights tapped as this year's moderators. Country Aircheck reached out to each of them for a nugget – one fascinating discovery or discussion that has them particularly excited about the week ahead. Of course, they couldn't resist sneaking in an extra tidbit or two.

• Emmis/Indianapolis VP/MM Charlie Morgan: "After we see Larry Rosin's new research and powerful 'real people' videos Wednesday, I'll moderate two panels Thursday that will give attendees a chance to dive deeper into the research and determine what we might do with it. 'In Their Own Words: Listener Insights and Feelings toward Country Radio' (10am) will revisit a few of the most provocative videos and put a radio pro and a record pro on the hot seat for their [reactions]. The 'Research Presentation Follow Up' (2:30pm) will bring Larry back to answer questions about his methodology and insights, and provide an open forum for discussion.

"Our Friday 'Mythbusters' panel (4pm) will be a perfect CRS ending with lots of humor and production values. Trust me, people will be talking about the 'Does a record rep have a soul?' myth. We will leave you laughing and thinking."

• McVay, Cook & Associates' EVP Dan Halyburton

Dan Halyburton

Halyburton: "All of the digital panels are great, but 'Digital Dashboard: New Technologies = New Opportunities' (Friday, 11am) is going to be a highlight based on where the industry is now. Radio has owned the dashboard from the very beginning, and has dealt with FM, 8-track, cassettes and CDs along the way. We've got a rep from Toyota, which is making substantial inroads with the in-car digital experience. We'll also hear from someone from iHeartRadio about that platform, and a guy from vTuner who will talk about their capability, as well as other online radio station aggregators. It will be a pretty lively discussion. I don't think we'll have any fistfights, but we'll have competitors up there."

• Emmis/Indianapolis OM, WLHK PD Bob Richards: "One of the panels I'm most excited about, not just from the moderator's perspective, but also from the perspective of an attendee, is 'PPM: What We Know and What's Changing; New Strategies For Success' (Thursday, 9am).

Radio: A Love Story

We won't lie, but we thought about it. This is our Valentine's Day column and we're showing up a week late, like a lot of guys. (We bumped it last week for our interview with new WSIX/Nashville PD Michael Bryan.) Thankfully, there's no greater radio love-fest than CRS, so asking folks how they fell in love with this crazy business still fits, right? Right? Responses flooded our inbox and we included as many as possible. Don't worry, it doesn't get too mushy.

WUSN/Chicago MD Marci Braun: I won a contest where US99 jocks Trish Biondo and The Katman came out to my parents' house. I just adored Trish. When I went away to college, she answered my letters with questions about radio. I wanted to be her. I find it very surreal that I not only work with Trish, but I get to work for the station that I grew up listening to.

Consultant Joel Raab: Hearing Dan Ingram at WABC/New York echo across Jones Beach was really something, and I knew I wanted to be part of it. In Country, Lee Arnold inspired me, too. His connection to the music was unmatched.

Congrats Toby on your Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Award Nomination

WDRM/Huntsville, AL MD/afternoons AJ McCloud: I grew up in Louisville listening to 790 WAKY with Coyote Calhoun, Gary Burbank, Mike McVay as Malibu Mike and the late Bill Bailey. Later, I actually got hired at WHAS, then WAMZ ... Wow!

KFGE/Lincoln, NE PD Steve Albertson: As a kid I had a transistor radio that I'd sneak under the covers so I could hear the legendary Jack Buck on KMOX/St. Louis painting those wonderful pictures. When the local station hosted a high school career day, I knew this was what I wanted to do.

Cadillac Jack

KCYE/Las Vegas MD/afternoons Cadillac Jack: I listened to WLS and WCFL/Chicago on my AM radio. Once I picked up a prize and saw Larry Lujack live from the window in the hall, it was all over.

WGNA/Albany, NY PD Tom Jacobsen: As a kid I remember listening to The Greaseman and laughing so hard I would hyperventilate. I wanted to be a part of that. When I was 13, I listened to WGNA. I knew I wanted to get into radio and thought if I could ever work there, I'd have accomplished something. Actually programming it, wow! I still pinch myself every day.

WFMS/Indianapolis morning co-host Kevin Freeman: In second grade, a tornado hit the Indianapolis area, and a local radio station was talking donations for the Salvation Army. Legendary Indy broadcaster Joe Pickett promised any listener that stopped by and dropped money in a bucket got their name on the air. I begged my dad to drive me to the studio so I could say mine. From that point on, I was hooked!

WQMX/Akron PD Sue Wilson: I used to lay in bed and listen to CBS Radio Mystery Theater in the mid '70s. The sound effects got my imagination going. It really showed me radio was theater-of-the-mind. Of course, after it was over I'd listen to music 'til I fell asleep.

Sue Wilson

WZMR/Albany, NY PD Jon Reilly: I grew up in Western Massachusetts and was able to listen to WTIC/Hartford (Top 40 at the time). They played the best music and had a great morning show. You never knew what they were going to do next.

John Shomby

WGH/Norfolk PD John Shomby: What clinched it for me was a trip to the WFIL/Philadelphia studios while I was in college and watching one of the many "Bobby Mitchells" doing overnights. I changed my major from pre-law to communications and never looked back.

WUSN/Chicago air personality Trish Biondo: A Barbara Mandrell show at the Mill Run Theatre captured my heart. A family vacation to Fan Fair, The Grand Ole Opry and Alabama's June Jam in '83 also made a huge impression. In '86 I interviewed at the station I listened to and loved, US99. In '88, an internship with Scott Borchetta at MTM Records showed me the industry worked better as a team effort between radio and records. Attending CRS '89 at the Opryland Hotel was the clincher. -RJ Curtis

Gary O, Bingo & More!

"To follow arguably the best record executive this town has ever seen, that's daunting," Sony/Nashville Chairman Gary Overton says in The Interview inside Country Aircheck's CRS print issue, out this week. "The key was to learn a lot about what he created, but then have a vision for how to take it from here to down the road." Pick up the issue and read more about Overton's vision, early successes and difficult decisions. And don't miss your chance to win an Apple iPad 2 and have

OFF THE RECORD: KELLIE PICKLER

Kellie Pickler

BNA's Kellie Pickler gives an industry spin on the artist interview:

What station did you grow up listening to? WSOC/Charlotte and WKKT/Charlotte.

Do you remember the first time you heard "Red High Heels" on the radio? I was on the American Idol tour going through Atlanta. All the Top 10 contestants including Katherine McPhee, Chris Daughtry and Mandissa were on the bus, and we knew it was getting ready to come on WKHX. The DJ goes, "After this Rascal Flatts song, we're going to play Kellie Pickler's brand new song, 'Red High Heels.'" We were all screaming and dancing on the bus.

Who's fun behind the wheel? Buffy Cooper is my favorite driver, but she scares the hell out of my band. She has a lead foot like me.

Have you ever wanted to buy anything from SkyMall?

I recently flipped through SkyMall, and I joked with my band, "OK, guys, no more Christmas bonuses for y'all. You get to pick one thing that you want from SkyMall, and that's your bonus." I have to give them hell every now and then because I've never had a big brother, but now I have a busload of them.

How do you deal with getting sick on the road? I try to go the more natural route with whiskey. That's what my husband does. I try to stay away from antibiotics because I think they can weaken your immune system long-term. There are too many side effects. It's like, "Take this for your cough, but it could cause diarrhea, heart attacks, blood clots, stroke, diabetes ..."

Are you a prankster? I can be. My grandpa is terrified of snakes and we scare the shit out of him with our python. We put it in his bed the other night. He ran and locked himself in the bathroom. He's not a 64-year-old victim. He is a little menace. So, don't feel sorry for him.

The depth of talent and knowledge on that panel is incredible. We're only at 18 months with PPM (at WLHK), so to hear from Lincoln Financial's John Dimick, Arbitron's Jon Miller, WQDR/Raleigh's Lisa McKay-Blake and Media Monitors/Mediabase's Philippe Generali will be great since I feel like I'm still on a steep learning curve myself.

"Another panel I'm excited about is 'Non-Traditional Relationships' (Friday, 11am). There aren't a lot of radio connections with those panelists, so you'll hear a lot of ideas

MY TUNES: SONGS THAT INSPIRED MY LIFE

📶 Shereé Latham what an album!

CRB's Agenda Coordinator Shereé Latham discusses her most influential songs, albums and concerts:

- 1. Dolly Parton/Here You Come Again: I learned to sing this for the 1977 Miss Cinderella Tot Beauty Pageant. I was five and loved the entire album – "Coat of Many Colors," "Jolene," "I Will Always Love You" – what an album!
- 2. Barbara Mandrell: I used to watch Barbara Mandrell And The Mandrell Sisters religiously!
- 3. Kenny Rogers/The Gambler: Who didn't grow up singin' to that? I also loved "Lucille" and "Lady."
- 4. Bon Jovi, Wanted Dead Or Live Tour, Birmingham: This was the first concert my mother let me travel to Birmingham from Montgomery to see. I went with my girlfriend Andy and we screamed "Livin' On A Prayer" and "You Give Love A Bad Name."
- 5. Madonna/Like A Virgin: I wore this cassette tape out. I don't know how many times I sang Madonna standing on my bed. I might still have the neon shirt, rubber bracelets, leg warmers and mesh gloves to prove it.
 - A highly regarded song or album you've never heard: Anything by Pink Floyd.
 - An "important" piece of music you just don't get: Rap music.
 - An album you played or listened to incessantly: Cyndi Lauper's "Girls Just Want To Have Fun," "Time After Time" and Paul Abdul's "Straight Up." I'm a child of the '80s.
 - One obscure or non-country song everyone should listen to right now: Celtic Woman's "You Raise Me Up."

• Journal PD/Country, Wichita OM, KFDI/Wichita PD Beverlee Brannigan: "While there's been a spotlight on PPM, many diary markets have felt like Arbitron has some issues to address. I'm really looking forward to learning more about Arbitron's LeapFrog initiative in the 'Dear Diary: What's New, Now, Next?' panel (Thursday, 9am). Arbitron's SVP/Marketing Bill

• Nuwoodoo Co-Founder Marc Chase: "If you believe evolving from a broadcaster (one-way mass communication) to digital media executive (two-way interactive/personalized communication) is vital for continued success, you'll definitely want to see 'Big Picture: Radio's National Digital Strategy' (Friday, 2pm). The vision, goals, and opportunities being implemented by the organizations represented should be a fantastic learning experience.
